Course Syllabus

ENGLISH II

Program: Telecommunications Engineering

1. Course number and name
IDIG1002 - ENGLISH II

2. Credits and contact hours
3 credits and 4 contact hours

3. Instructor's course or coordinator's name
MARIA CECILIA MORENO ABRAMOWICZ

4. Text book, tittle, author, and year
• Doff A., Thaine C., Puchta H., Stranks J., Lewis-Jones P.. Empower B1+ Combo A (First Edition)

a.Other supplemental materials

• Singleton, Jill. Writers at work: The Paragrpah (First Edition)

• Raymond Murphy. ESSENTIAL GRAMMAR IN USE with answers (5)

5. Specific course information
a.   Brief description of the content of the course (catalog description)

In this course, grammatical tenses such as the present, the present perfect and the future, as well as the narrative verbs, and the first and zero conditional are reviewed. The students produce an academic paragraph that includes a topic sentence, supporting ideas and a concluding sentence. In addition, they interact and have the opportunity to express in the target language their ideas on everyday issues as well as social and professional matters.

b.   Prerequisites

ENGLISH I - IDIG1001

c.   This course is: Required

6. Specific goals for the course
a.   Specific outcomes of instruction

1.- Understand conversations and audio of everyday situations so students are able to identify the main ideas

2.- Examine information of academic and daily texts for the understanding of main ideas.

3.- Develop oral communication through conversations, discussions and / or presentations related to familiar topics.

4.- Elaborate academic paragraphs using an intermediate level of English.

b.   Explicity indicate which of the student outcomes listed in Criterion 3 or any other outcomes are addressed by the course

• An ability to communicate in English

7. Brief list of topics to be covered

ENGLISH II

Program: Telecommunications Engineering

1.- Communication

2.- Work and Technology

3.- Relationships

4.- Personality

5.- The Natural world